FAMILIAL ASPECTS OF CANCER
RESEARCH & PRACTICE – 2020
FIRST ANNOUNCEMENT FOR OUR 21st MEETING

1st - 4th September 2020
Mantra on Salt Beach, Kingscliffe, NSW
www.mantraonsaltbeach.com.au

Cancelled for 2020

Confirmed International Speakers

Jo Morris
Institute of Cancer and Genomic Sciences, University of Birmingham, UK

David G. Huntsman
The University of British Columbia, BC Cancer Research Centre, Canada

Marjanka Schmidt
Netherlands Cancer Institute, Amsterdam

Clare Turnbull
Institute of Cancer Research Guys and St Thomas’ NHS Trust, UK

1st September

Family Cancer Clinic Day
• Hereditary neuroendocrine
• Pancreatic cancer
• Implementation science and current theories
• Variant interpretation
• PhD student presentation

2nd - 4th September

Combined clinical and scientific meeting
• Breast, ovarian, sarcoma and colorectal cancer susceptibility genes and functional assays
• Polygenic Risk Score and cancer risk
• Tumour-meets-germline
• The value of surveillance in changing clinical practice
• Secondary findings from genomic analysis

The NBCF funded, Professor Joe Sambrook student prize will be awarded to the best abstract submitted by a student.